Finance Minister Ali Hassan Khalil assured that after the issuance of the decree concerning the opening of an additional credit to cover the end-of-service indemnities, the due amounts will be paid to retirees as of next Monday according to the order in which the decisions are issued by the Retirement Commission. Everyone will receive his dues before the holidays and there is no need any for intervention or bribery in this matter.

On another note, Minister Khalil has referred one of the service providers to oversight bodies for attempted fraud after he received a bribery to help a retiree secure his rights.
