A meeting was held at the Ministry of Finance between Finance Minister Ali Hassan Khalil, the Minister of Industry, Wael Abu Faour, the Minister of Economy, Mansour Bteich, and the Chairman of the Association of Lebanese Industrialists, Fady Gemayel. The meeting focused on the suggestions to impose some fees on several imported products.

After the meeting, Abu Faour stated:

“We have prepared a joint proposition midway between the different suggestions offered, aiming to impose specific fees on several imported luxury goods that have alternatives in our local production. We will submit them today to the Finance and Budget Committee.”
