

Date: 26/11/2019

Caretaker Finance Minister Ali Hassan Khalil tweeted the below:

We have started to transfer the employees' salaries for this month on time. The interests of the people, their life and livelihood, as well as the problems with the banks, the increase in prices and the chaos of the market, all require urgent measures to be taken and governmental committees to meet and follow up. A caretaker government does not relieve the PM and ministers of their responsibilities.