Within the scope of the measures taken by the Lebanese Customs Administration to protect national production and farmers from unfair competition with smuggled goods, Chtaura customs seized a truck, at El Faour intersection in the Beqaa, loaded with bananas smuggled from Syria.

The Customs brigade in the South also seized huge quantities of tomatoes smuggled from Syria. The goods were seized and those involved arrested.

Baalbek's brigade seized also in Hrebta a tank truck loaded with smuggled fuel and is currently at the Customs office in Chtaura.
