

Date: 14/12/2018

Finance Minister Ali Hassan Khalil tweeted the following:

Today, Moody's report maintained Lebanon's rating but changed the outlook to negative. This should make everyone pay attention to the accurate content that stresses on the importance of forming a government and starting reforms in order to restore trust and mitigate the risks and the deficit. This is possible today, but we might lose the opportunity to do so in few months if the outlook remains negative.