A meeting was held at the Ministry of Finance between Minister of Finance Ali Hassan Khalil, the Chief of the Higher Council of Customs, Brigadier-General Asaad Al-Tufaili, and Board members, Gracia Azzi, Hani El-Haj Shehadeh and the Director General of Customs Badri Dahir.

The meeting focused on the relation between the Higher Council and the General Directorate in terms of prerogatives and performance.

Minister Khalil stated that the meeting stressed on the respect of the due process of law within the scope of the relation between the Higher Council of Customs and the General Directorate of Customs and on the commitment to decisions, especially that problems between the two bodies have affected the stability of the administration and their relations with each other and with their partners.

He revealed that a detailed circular will be issued in this regard, stressing on the importance of the stability of the work and performance of Customs and their development, in addition to the need to adopt a Customs development and modernization plan. Khalil gave also directives to issue the results of the Customs officer course.
