

Date: 27/09/2019

Statement issued by the Ministry of Finance

Some media outlets and social media platforms have published information that the website of the Ministry of Finance has been hacked. The Ministry would like to assure you that such information is incorrect and that the photo being published dates back to 2016. The Ministry's website is slow due to the large number of users currently accessing it.