Caretaker Finance Minister Dr. Ghazi Wazni, met with a delegation of Notaries Public headed by Joseph Bechara, in the presence of the Acting DG of Finance, George Maarawi. They discussed the joint development projects between notaries and the General Directorate of Land Registry and Cadastre (GDLRC) in the Ministry of Finance, mainly those related to the Electronic Lien Law, and the follow-up of the FEXTE project funded by France and aiming to assist the GDLRC in developing laws and modernizing the administration and its relationship with citizens.

The meeting included a general overview of the current situation of the notaries' profession and stressed on the need to develop the relevant legislation to tackle the prevailing difficulties. Bechara confirmed the council's support to the FEXTE project, stressed on its efforts to secure the electronic infrastructure and its participation in preparing the required regulatory texts, in addition to organizing sessions addressed to all those working in this sector.
