

Date: 03/07/2020

Finance Minister Dr. Ghazi Wazni met with the newly appointed Head of the Banking Control Commission, Maya Dabbagh, and the members of the commission: Marwan Mikhael, Kamel Wazni, Adel Idrick and Joseph Haddad.

During the meeting, Minister Wazni addressed the Commission, wishing it success in its difficult mission, since it will be facing serious challenges during the coming period and will have to take important decisions pertaining to the fate of the banking sector, the financial system, the economic situation and even the fate of the country. He stressed that heavy responsibilities fall on them and everyone is waiting to see how the Banking Control Commission will assess the situation.

Minister Wazni also met with the newly appointed government commissioner at Lebanon's Central Bank (BDL), Crystal Wakim, and highlighted the importance of her role in ensuring proper implementation of regulations and the Code of Money and Credit, and in controlling the bank's accounts.