

Date: 19/02/2020

Finance Minister Dr. Ghazi Wazni reviewed the general situation with Russian Ambassador to Lebanon, Alexander Zasytkin, who stressed that his country was standing by the new government in its efforts to take the measures needed to tackle the financial and economic crisis in order to save Lebanon and guarantee its stability.

Minister Wazni also met German ambassador to Lebanon, George Berglin, and they discussed the joint cooperation between the two countries, especially Germany's support in improving water and sanitation networks in some areas of Mount Lebanon and building vocational training schools for the youth.