Caretaker Finance Minister Dr. Ghazi Wazni met with French Presidential Envoy, Ambassador Pierre Duquesne who is in charge of coordinating international aid in Lebanon.

During the meeting, they discussed the importance of holding the third international conference that will be organized in Paris this month to support the Lebanese people, in the presence of a number of heads of states and governments.

The meeting also focused on the measures aiming to tackle the severe economic crisis prevailing in Lebanon and on how to combine efforts to ensure the success of the conference.
